

DEAL KINDLY WITH THE STRANGER.

Deal kindly with the stranger,
Nor pass him coldly by,
When in weakness and languor
He comes with downcast eye!

Deal kindly with the stranger,
As humbly at your door
He seeks relief from danger
Until the night be o'er!

Deal kindly with the stranger,
When the storm is passing by,
And cheerful on your cottage hearth
The fire is blazing high!

Be mindful of the stranger,
When grief and want and pain
Have laid him low on his couch,
Never to rise again!

O did you know the loneliness
Of heart the stranger bears,
Kindness would mark your words to him,
And Heav'n would hear your pray'rs!

He who ever with the stranger
In truthful kindness deals,
May sometimes find the stranger's garb
An angel form conceal!

FEMALE EDUCATION.

Female education is highly important as connected with domestic life. It is at home where man passes the largest portion of his time—where he seeks a refuge from the vexations and embarrassments of business and ennobling repose from his exertions, a relaxation from care by the interchange of affections: where some of the finest sympathies, taste and disinterested love—such as is seldom found in the walks of a selfish and calculating world. Nothing can be more desirable than to make the domestic abode the highest object and satisfaction.

Well-ordered home man's best delight to make,
And by submissive wisdom, modest skill,
With every gentle call eluding art,
To raise her virtues; animate her bliss
And sweeten all the toils of human life—
This is the female dignity and pride.

Neither rank, nor splendid mansions, nor expensively furnished apartments, nor luxurious repasts, can accomplish these actions. They are to be obtained from the riches of elevated principles, from the nobility of virtue, from the splendor of a religious beauty, from the banquet of refined taste, affectionate deportment and intellectual pleasures. Intelligence and piety throw the brightest sunshine over private life, and these are the results of a female education.

NO PLACE FOR THIEVES.—A letter from California says: "Goods are not worth stealing. Clothing is cheaper here than in Boston. Provisions are also cheap. Washing is six dollars a dozen. You can buy shirts for five dollars a dozen, wear them once, and then throw them away, and save a dollar a dozen at that."

MONUMENT TO WASHINGTON.—The Commissioners appointed by the Governor of Virginia, offer a premium of five hundred dollars for a plan for the Washington Monument. The Monument is to be located on the Capitol square, near the Bell House, to be constructed of Virginia granite or marble, or a combination of both, and cost one hundred thousand dollars.

MARRIAGES, ETC., IN ENGLAND.—It is stated that, out of the 135,845 marriages solemnized in England, during 1848, no less than 104,306 of the parties, viz: 42,439 men and 61,877 women, signed the marriage register with a mark; or, in other words, nearly one third of the men, and one half of the women could not write. The returns from the register's office, for 1848, show that 576,077 births occurred in England, during that year. The number of deaths in England, in 1848, was 423,304. The births during the year exceeding the deaths 152,773.

WEAR A SMILE.

Which will you do?—smile and make others happy, or be crabbed and make every one around miserable. The amount of happiness you can produce is incalculable if you show a smiling face, a kind heart, and speak pleasant words. Wear a pleasant countenance; let joy beam in your eyes, and love glow in your forehead. There is no joy like that which springs from a kind act or a pleasant deed, and you may feel it at night when you rest, at morning when you rise, and thro' all the day when about your business.

"A smile, who will refuse a smile,
The sorrowing heart to cheer?
And turn to love the heart of guile,
And check the falling tear?

A pleasant smile for every face,
Oh, 'tis a blessed thing;
It will the lines of care erase,
And spots of beauty bring."

THE DRUNKARD'S WILL.

I leave to society a ruined character, a wretched example, and a memory that will soon rot.

I leave to my parents, during the rest of their lives, as much sorrow as humanity, in a feeble and desperate state can sustain.

I leave to my brothers and sisters as much mortification and injury as I well could bring on them.

I leave to my wife a broken heart, a life of wretchedness, shame to weep over, and a premature death.

I give and bequeath to each of my children poverty, ignorance, a low character, and the remembrance that their father was a drunkard.

A ray is like a cinnamon-tree—the bark is worth more than the body.

No man has a right to do as he pleases, except when he pleases to do right.
